PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hello everyone,

The year is drawing to a close, with Christmas just over a month away. Before that day we have our Christmas Party to look forward to. Once more Linda has been hard at work organising both a venue and the menu for our lunch. The venue is a new one, chosen mainly because it gives a chance for all to mingle and mix, but the other reason is the chance of inclement weather. The way things have been going this is a real possibility. Everyone enjoyed the hospitality of Barbara and Andrew last year, but we realised that with the number of people we had then, the word would spread and perhaps mean that more would come this year. At the time of writing we have 59 bookings.

The function with the Swedish Jazz Kings proved to be very successful, and enjoyable. It is always great to see such a lot of members in attendance at the functions we arrange. Sadly that was not the case when the Date brothers performed at the Statesman Hotel. Those of us who attended really enjoyed the music and the commentary that Ian provided. We were also interested to hear his trumpet and singing voice. James Luke fitted in very well despite the fact that he had never played with them before. Ian's brother Nigel is also a great talent. I am afraid if we want to use the Statesman again we will need to either take bookings, sell tickets beforehand or something so that we can give a better estimate of numbers for them to organise their staff properly.

The prices for the trip on Sydney Harbour with the Sydney Jazz Club have increased but we already have a list, and we will probably only get as many tickets as last year. So if you want to attend let me know soon. Some of us will be attending the Jazz Convention at Orange from Boxing Day onwards, I am taking my sister Helen along so will be away for that week.

It is sad for me to report that we have lost some members over the last while. First was Willem Obbes, who although no longer a member was well know to many of us. Maggie Lamont who used to often come to the Dickson Tradies lost her husband, then my dear friend Ruth Ross who also came to the Tradies has also passed away. Our sympathy also goes to Dawn Searle for the loss of Richard after a long illness.

I hope you all have a safe and happy Christmas and New Year and that 2011 brings all the Joy you need.

Cheers

Margaret
